

CLASSES FOR SPRING 2011

The Actor's Toolbox: Shakespeare's Slam
Grades 6-8
Saturdays, April 2—May 7 (Except 4/30),
1:00-2:30pm
Cost $195

Continuing in the Actors' Toolbox series, learn the intricacies of performing and developing your actor's instrument & skill.

Students will work on monologues from Shakespeare's sonnets and other poems to fine-tune their craft. Learn how to listen, respond and actively engage with each other through improvisation and acting games.

High School Scene Study: Shakespeare
Grades 9-12

Mondays, April 11—May 23 (Except 4/18), 5:00-6:30pm
Cost $195

To act or not to act, that is the question. Join us as we delve into some of the best duet scenes from Shakespeare's plays – examining development of character through voice and movement and script analysis. This class is great for brushing up on your classical monologues for auditions. Speaking of auditions, the first round of auditions for Shake It Up Shakespeare will be on May 23.

Adult Acting Level II
Saturdays, April 9—May 21
(Except 4/30)
10:00-12:00pm
Cost $250

Take your craft to the next level in this advanced scene study acting class. Using the Meisner Technique participants will explore contemporary scenes and monologues. Learn to live truthfully in the moment of the scene by working spontaneously from your partners' behavior as the catalyst into an honest response. Some acting experience is required.

PRIVATE ACTING LESSONS, for all ages
By appointment only

All sessions are held at Long Wharf Theatre, last for one hour and are $70 each visit.
